

Harris Hires Wealth Advisor In Florida

Harris Private Bank recently hired John Patten, as wealth advisor in West Palm Beach, Fla. Patten, former director of client relations at Grand Bank & Trust, told PAM that his job's key function is investment and he plans to solely focus on his clients' needs. "It's like being the quarterback of the team," Patten explained.

He will report to Mike Dyer, managing director for the West Palm Beach area. He was attracted to the company because it provides support and has strong ties within its local Florida community. The firm has additional offices in Sarasota and Naples.

The search was conducted by ECG Resources. (PAM Private Asset Management www.pammagazine.com)
